

To Research...

Get ready...

- sequence
- read easy overview
- search for subtopics

Study 1 subtopic.

-  ← Easy book first
-  Tackle harder books to learn more about the topic.

Synthesize (combine) information from across texts.

Talk with others and take notes.

Use the topic's special vocabulary.

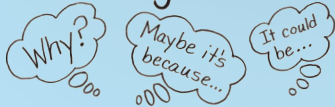

Think your own thoughts.

Use text structures to organize your learning and notetaking.

Think deeply about the choices the author made to grow ideas.

Look across books at similar subsections to think about patterns and relationships.

Ask questions, develop theories.

Gather evidence that supports your theories.

